THE BEGINNING

Some people are undoubtedly born more creative than others, but whether or not they're destined to channel their creativity through a specific art form is questionable. Øistein Onur D. (aka CornonmaX) did not come from a particularly musical family. The fact that his creativity manifested itself in sound and music was pure coincidence...

MILESTONES

By 2002, Øistein had produced music for more than 50 commercials. ## THE PRESENT

Despite a limited number of releases since Cornonmax's inception in 2005, Øistein has developed a well deserved reputation amongst his peers for productions that showcase a stunning level of intricate detail and subtle nuances. His tracks are equally at home on the dance floor as they are in your headphones, getting support from industry heavyweights such as Tiësto, Paul Van Dyk, Armin Van Buuren, Above & Beyond and Marco V. He has also received critical acclaim from DJ Magazine and URB who both gave glowing reviews for "Come Play Perfect" and "Remember September." Considering that his tracks have achieved top placement in European dance charts and gotten consistent play on worldwide radio shows, it is clear that his music resonates with the masses as well. Øistein's musical talent is far from one dimensional and not limited to the trance scene. With his debut album in the works, CORNONMAX is poised to leave a lasting impression on listeners all over the globe..
